

K-LOVE radio station is a safe radio station for all ages. It is a community service for parents to have this type of programming where we know there will never be anything offenseve. The local community will be negativly affected if there is no alternative to the common junk on the radio air waves. More people are tuning into family friendly K-LOVE for music that is safe for all.